

Don't leave your MetLife Identity & Fraud Protection behind.

Take your proactive protection with you.

Don't leave this valuable benefit behind

We're pleased to offer you the option to continue your MetLife and Aura Identity & Fraud Protection coverage.

When you separate from your employer—either because you are leaving the company or are no longer eligible for coverage—continue your protection at the same low rate offered through your employer benefits program.

When the coverage is terminated through your employer, you will be placed in a 30-day complimentary service period in your current plan. An email will be sent to the email address listed in your Aura account settings* with information on switching to a credit card payment within the 30-day complimentary service period. If you do not receive this email, please call us for assistance at 1 (844) 931-2872.

What steps must be taken to continue your coverage?
